

2013 ANGELI CUVEE

The 2013 vintage Angeli Cuvee is rich, voluptuous and sexy. Bright and evocative in the glass, the fruit runs from tart rhubarb all the way to ripe blackberry. A full mouth of fruit yields to stone and earth as the Zinfandel is bolstered by textural Petite Sirah. Brilliant now, this wine will surprise Zinfandel Lovers with its aging ability.

BLEND:

Zinfandel, Petite Sirah,
Carignane

ALCOHOL:

15.2%

APPELLATION:

Sonoma County

SUGGESTED

DRINKING WINDOW:

2015 through 2025

CASES PRODUCED:

2,400

RELEASE DATE:

Fall 2015

Marietta

Previous acclaim for Angeli Cuvee:

"The peppery, meaty, superb 2010 Angeli Cuvee is primarily a blend of Zinfandel, Petite Sirah, Carignan and cool climate Syrah. Its dense ruby/purple hue is followed by aromas of licorice, black currants and cherries intermixed with hints of camphor and spice. This is a full-bodied, opulent, mouth-filling, savory wine with not a hard edge to be found." 92 points

-Robert Parker, *The Wine Advocate